

Sac Collegiate Ministry Newsletter

Bethany Bohrer
MSC Missionary

SASBC Collegiate Ministry Director

January 2011

bethanybohrer@sacbaptist.org

916.863.5426

www.sacbaptist.org

Ministry Update

Love in Action

It is a brand new year and I am so excited for what God has in store for the collegiate ministry and Sacramento churches! Usually in January I would talk about new beginnings, but instead I want to talk to you about love. I know it is not February, but please bear with me.

“Love Does” based on 1 John 3:18. After hearing the messages and focusing on the scriptures presented I have decided that my personal and ministerial theme for 2011 will be “Love in Action”. I already challenged my high school students to start demonstrating their love for

“By this we know love, that He laid down His life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers.” 1 John 3:18

Christmas was an incredible holiday for not only did it see my family come together in some amazing ways, but God really impressed upon me the idea of the ultimate love displayed in the Christmas story. Then I took a group of 11 students to the Tsunami Youth Conference in Long Beach, CA. The theme was their family, friends, church, community, state, nation, and world. They have come up with a list of ministry projects and I am excited to help them find their spiritual gifts, shape, and passions so they can use them to serve God. This is one way I hope to instill in them the lifestyle of Christianity

Prayer Requests

•••

1. God would raise up a godly man to partnership in the ministry.
2. Students would have open hearts as they prepare for the upcoming Spring Semester.
3. Administration would have open hearts to allowing me on campus this semester to survey students.

and curb the high student dropout rate in church. Sacramento Association churches will also be linking our youth and collegiate groups for special events that encourage them to be a community and work together to impact our cities. It is looking like a very exciting year to come!

Personal Update

Personally I am very excited to see how God is going to use me this coming year. I cannot do this without your help. Here are some practical ways you can be involved in my ministry. I am at 19% of my full funding and need your support by sharing about the collegiate ministry with the people you know. Please consider hosting a small dinner party with people I can talk to, or allow me the opportunity to share in your churches and small groups about all the ways they can be involved in the collegiate ministry. What better way to impact your world for Christ than investing in collegiate ministry where we can share the Gospel and disciple those who are called by God to be in teaching, medicine, engineering, theater, sports, and every other career imaginable in our world?

Another opportunity to be involved right now is by becoming one of my prayer warriors. You can commit to pray for me by signing up for a weekly prayer email, text alerts and coming with me to pray drive on campus. I go every Wednesday afternoon at 1:30pm. If you are interested in joining, I leave from Fourteenth Avenue Baptist Church at 1:15pm. I also go on Fridays at 11:30am. Please contact me and let me know of your interests.

Last, but certainly not least, you can get involved this month by sharing this newsletter with your family, friends, and church. The more people who know about this collegiate ministry, the greater impact on college students we can have. After all, we are all called to work together in unity and cooperation!

Thank you so much for your support, encouragement, and prayers. They make a huge impact on my life and keep me going day to day! This ministry could not exist without you! God Bless!

Did you know? California State University, Sacramento has

• • •

29, 241 Students

17,157 Women, 12,084 Men

750 International Students (Largest group from India)

1,484 Professors

102 Academic Programs

250 Student Organizations